Professional Ensembles

Westbound Situation Mar 2017–Present

Westbound Situation blends the precision of classical chamber music, the rhythmic drive of bluegrass, and the expressive language of jazz into a new hybrid style often described as chambergrass. The ensemble is composed of Jacob Warren (double bass), Grant Flick (violin and nyckelharpa), Jake Howard (mandolin), and Zachary Brown (cello). The group performs original instrumental music drawing on a wide range of musical traditions. Professional responsibilities include educational outreach, social media management, performing, arranging, composing, website design and management, and audio/video content production and editing. Westbound Situation is managed by Great Lakes Performing Artist Associates.

Warren & Flick Jan 2017–Present

Warren & Flick is a collaborative duo featuring multi-instrumentalist Grant Flick and double bassist Jacob Warren. Together, they explore the nuanced textures and expressive possibilities of a two-person ensemble. Using original compositions alongside arrangements of standards from a variety of genres, the duo finds depth and complexity within an intentionally minimalist format. Professional responsibilities include educational outreach booking, performing, arranging, composing, booking, social media management, and audio/video content production and editing. Warren & Flick is managed by Great Lakes Performing Artist Associates.

Kittel & Co. Mar 2022–Present

Kittel & Co. is a Grammy-nominated string band led by violinist Jeremy Kittel. The ensemble performs original music by Kittel and is widely recognized within both the classical and progressive string music communities. Kittel & Co. is managed by Yonas Media.
